Section 1. Authority. The Association of REALTORS® shall maintain for the use of its Members a Multiple Listing Service, which shall be subject to the Bylaws of the White Mountain Association of REALTORS® and such Rules and Regulations as may be hereinafter adopted. (Amended 09/04)

Section 2. Purpose. A Multiple Listing Service is (Amended 4/07)

- (a) A means by which authorized Participants makes bl a nke t unilateral offers of compensation to other participants (acting as subagents, buyer agent, or in other agency or non- agency capacities defined by law);
- (b) A means by which cooperation among Participants is enhanced;
- (c) A means by which information is accumulated and disseminated to enable authorized Participants to prepare appraisals, analysis, and other valuations of real property for bona fide clients and customers;
- (d) A means by which Participants engaging in real estate appraisal contribute to common data bases;
- (e)
- (f) A facility for the orderly correlation and dissemination of listing information so Participants may better serve their clients and the public.

Entitlement to compensation is determined by the cooperating broker's performance as a procuring cause of the sale (or lease).

While offers of compensation made by listing brokers to cooperating brokers through MLS are unconditional, * a listing brokers obligation to compensate a cooperating broker who was the procuring cause of sale (or lease) may be excused to compensate a cooperating broker who was the procuring cause of sale (or lease) may be excused if its determined through arbitration that, through no fault of the listing broker and in the exercise of good faith and reasonable care, it was impossible or financially unfeasible for the listing broker to collect a commission pursuant to the listing agreement. In such instances, entitlement to cooperative compensation offered through MLS would be a question to be determined by an arbitration hearing panel based on all relevant facts and circumstances including, but not limited to, why it was impossible or financially unfeasible for the listing broker to collect some or all the commission established in the listing agreements; at what point in the transaction did the listing broker know (or should have known) that some or all of the commission established in the listing agreement might not be paid; and how promptly had the listing broker communicated to cooperating brokers that the commission established in the listing agreement might not be paid. (Adopted 04/09)

*Compensation is unconditional except where local MLS rules permit listing brokers to reserve the right to reduce compensation offers to cooperating brokers in the event that the commission established in a listing contract is reduced by court actions of a lender. (Adopted 04/09)

Section 3. Participation. Any REALTOR® Member of this or any other Association who is a principal, partner, or corporate officer, or branch manager acting on behalf of the principal, without further qualification, shall be eligible to participate in Multiple Listing upon agreeing in writing to conform to the Rules and Regulations thereof and to pay the costs incidental thereto. However, under no circumstances is any individual or firm, regardless of membership status, entitled to Multiple Listing Service "Membership" or "Participants" unless they hold a current valid real estate broker's license and offer or accept compensation to and from other Participants or are licensed or certified by and appropriate state regulatory agency to engage in the appraisal of real property. Use of information developed by or published by an Association Multiple Listing Service is strictly limited to the activities authorized under a Participant's licensure(s) or certification and unauthorized uses are prohibited. Further, none of the foregoing is intended to convey "Participation", or "Membership" or any right of access to information developed or published by an Association Multiple Listing Service where access to such information is prohibited by law. (Amended 09/04)

Note: Mere possession of a broker's license is a not sufficient to qualify for MLS participation. Rather, the requirement that an individual or firm offers or accepts cooperation and compensation means that the participant actively endeavors during the operation of its real estate business to list a real property of the type listed on the MLS and/or to accept offers of cooperation and compensation made by listing brokers, or agents in the MLS. "Actively" means on a continual and ongoing basis during the operation of the participant's real estate business. The "actively" requirement is not intended to preclude MLS participation by a participant or potential participant that operates a real estate business on a part-time, seasonal, or similarly time-limited basis or that has its business interrupted by periods of relative inactivity occasioned by market conditions. Similarly, the requirement is not intended to deny MLS participation to a participant or a potential participant who has not achieved a minimum number of transactions despite good faith efforts. Nor is it intended to permit an MLS to deny participation based on the level of service provided by the participant or potential participant as long as the level of service satisfies state law. (Adopted 04/09)

The Key is that the participant or potential participant actively endeavors to make or accept offers of cooperation and compensation with respect to properties of the type that are listed on the MLS in which participation is sought. This requirement does not permit an MLS to deny participation to a participant or potential participant that operates a "Virtual Office Website" (VOW) (including a VOW that the participant uses to refer customers to other participants) if the participant or potential participant actively endeavors to make or accept offers of cooperation and compensation. An MLS may evaluate whether a participant or potential participant actively endeavors during the operation of its real estate business to offer or accept cooperation and compensation only if the MLS has a reasonable basis to believe that the participant or potential participant is in fact not doing so. The membership requirement shall be applied in a nondiscriminatory manner to all participants and potential participants. (Adopted 04/09)

Section 4. Supervision. The activity shall be operated under the supervision of the Multiple Listing Committee, in accordance with the Rules and Regulations, subject to approval by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. Appointment of Committee. (Amended 09/12) The President-Elect and 1st Vice President shall serve as Co-Chairpersons and appoint a Multiple Listing Committee. The Multiple Listing Committee shall consist of a minimum of five (5) members, with the majority being Brokers. All members of the Committee shall be Participants in Multiple Listing Service except, at the option of the local Association, REALTORS® affiliated with Participants may be appointed to service.

Section 6. Vacancies. Vacancies in unexpired terms shall be filled as in the case of original appointees.

Section 7. Attendance. Any Committee Member who fails to attend three (3) consecutive regular or special meetings of the Committee without excuse acceptable to the Chairman of the Committee, shall be deemed to have resigned from the Committee and the vacancy shall be filled as herein provided for original appointees.

Section 8. Subscribers. Subscribers (or users) of the Multiple Listing Service include non-principal brokers, sales associates, and licensed and certified appraisers affiliated with Participants.
